MR

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting with Ms. Diane La Voy, Staff Assistant, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, Subcommittee on Evaluation, 19 May 1978, 0945-1045

1. A meeting was held, the morning of 19 May 1978, at Ms. La Voy's request on the subject of the establishment of requirements for new collection systems. In addition to Ms. La Voy, present initially were the Chairman, COMIREX, [redacted], Imagery Division Deputy [redacted] and [redacted] of the IAB/ID. [redacted] had to depart after about fifteen minutes of the approximately one hour discussion.

2. The discussion was wide ranging covering long-term requirements for collection system development, standing operational requirements for existing or programmed collection systems, and mission-by-mission and current guidance. Requirements for the generic target category, Indications and Warning, and for [redacted] were discussed in some detail.

3. The following Imagery Division action items resulted from the discussion:

a. [redacted] will identify several senior Intelligence Community individuals for Ms. La Voy to contact for additional input to her as to how specific substantive needs are factored into the requirements generation process.

b. [redacted] also of the Imagery Division, will brief Ms. La Voy when requested on standing operational collection requirements and current and mission-by-mission guidance.

c. Historical material on the evolution of the near-real-time requirement will be provided Ms. La Voy for her perusal.
